Summary: Windwhistle is a newly constructed classic Bahamian Georgian residence built with a family and entertaining in mind. Attention to detail and creating a sense of place where of the utmost importance to the architect, interior designer and owners. The verdant tropical garden and driveway lead to the front door where guests' first view upon entering the front door is straight through the house to the harbour. The grand living and dining room offers a 11-foot coffered ceiling, along with three pairs of French doors leading out to the lower veranda and stunning views of the harbour's turquoise waters.
