Summary: Less than two hours from the bustle and excitement of Miami, you might think that Bimini would be a non-stop beach party. Refreshingly, however, it is not. While local music with steel drum and Caribbean rhythms can be found in various spots on the island, it is the easy, relaxed pace that keeps visitors and residents coming back year after year. Beaches with white sands as soft as velvet are blissfully empty. It is life disconnected from every modern-day care or worry, while still granting unlimited access to the little luxuries that make life memorable.

The Plantation Estate Home is a modern interpretation of the finest qualities of traditional plantation homes. Catch Me by the Sea is 4,588 sq. ft. and sits on an 18,483.30 sq. ft. oceanfront lot. It is fully furnished with 4 bedrooms and 4 and a half bathrooms. The living and dining rooms open to a covered patio. The kitchen has all stainless-steel appliances and plenty of seating, including a dining room and there is additional seating at the counter. The master bedroom has a large bathroom suite with a walk-in shower and opens to a covered patio. The second bedroom has a queen bed as well as a double sink and shower. Bedrooms three and four have queen beds, respectively, and each has its own bathroom with a half bath in ...
