Summary: Built by Lady Ashcombe back in the fifties, this lovely English style home is a pleasant find directly located in the quiet area of Fresh Creek, Andros.

Situated on 2.2 acres, this 2,588 sq. ft residence has spacious living quarters with high ceilings providing perfect airflow during the summertime months, and a working fireplace for those occasional cooler winter nights.

The kitchen is large and rustic with multiple pantry and countertop space. The living room is designed for entertaining guest with access to the "creekside room" and patios perfect for picnics. Each of the three bedrooms has its own ensuite bathroom.

The garden is big and beautiful with a wide variety of fruit trees and native plant species.

This "Creekside" home offers ample opportunities for enjoying island life, only minutes away from bone fishing or snorkelling the barrier reef. An extensive dock with a private slip gives you the convenient option of fishing at home too.
