Summary: Timeless in form and magical in nature, 'Tickled Pink' is a newly constructed beachfront mansion in Harbour Island, recognized by Forbes as "the Crown Jewel of the Caribbean". Perched high above the sea, resplendently dressed in hues that reflect the natural light and colours of The Bahamas, this incredible estate boasts a world of enchantment within and without, and direct access to Harbour Island's famous Pink Sand Beach.

Arrival to the main house is via porte cochere. Across 8,111 sq. ft. of air-conditioned living space, there are 9 bedrooms, 9.2 bathrooms and space for 18 guests. Designed in a style that evokes youthful Caribbean elegance, the house is light, colourful and airy, with the choice of materials lending to the feeling of being connected to nature. Coral stone floors feature prominently throughout, as do shiplap walls and vaulted ceilings in common areas and several of the bedrooms. Of course, the star of the show are the incredible views enjoyed from virtually every room in the house.

The great room - found on the main level of the home - comprises the living and dining rooms and leads out to an expansive
